

Certification of Eligibility for California Sales Tax Exemption

Qualification. Please refer to the State of California, Board of Equalization, Sales and Use Tax Regulation 1502 for all complete details on this subject matter. A copy of the regulation may be obtained from the Board of Equalization website (www.boe.ca.gov). One of the important paragraphs from this regulation is given below for your easy reference.

Certification of Eligibility and Assumption of Responsibility. I hereby certify and attest, on behalf of my company, that our purchases of software and software support (including software updates) from

Regulation 1502, Paragraph D (Revised 2017)

"The sale or lease of a prewritten program is not a taxable transaction if the program is transferred by remote telecommunications from the seller's place of business, to or through the purchaser's computer, and the purchaser does not obtain possession of any tangible personal property, such as storage media, in the transaction. Likewise, the sale of a prewritten program is not a taxable transaction if the program is installed by the seller on the customer's computer except when the seller transfers title to or possession of the storage media or installation of the program is a part of the sale of the computer."

eWorkplace Apps LLC, have been and will continue to be through remote telecommunications, with the software provided to us via FTP download or as an email attachment. If for whatever reason, California Board of Equalization were to consider in the future the purchase as a sales taxable transaction, the Company would agree to pay the taxing authority the assessed California sales tax directly. eWorkplace Apps assumes no sales tax liability of any kind related to the Company's purchase of the eWorkplace Apps software for products or services delivered via Internet and satisfying the above provisions.
